AMERICAN VOCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, INC.

FOUNDED 1925

PURPOSE The members of the AVA believe that education for personal and occupational adjustment is essential to the maintenance of freedom and security for individuals and the nation. They believe that vocational education is and should continue to be an important and integral part of the program of public school education in America. The Association exists to foster, promote and strengthen these beliefs and to provide those services which will aid in achieving the educational objectives implied in these beliefs. The AVA is dedicated to the task of assisting its members to fulfill their responsibilities to the American people for providing a sound program of training for occupational competency. Through the Association, the members unite their professional resources and coordinate their activities, to help create a nation of citizens who are competent economically, as well as intellectually and socially. The AVA promotes the professional interests of persons engaged in all phases of vocational and industrial arts education, including occupational guidance. It encourages its members to understand, and grow in the professional and technical competence needed for their efficient service to vocational education.
